

PERSONNEL CHANGES AT MOULTONBOROUGH POLICE DEPARTMENT

Interim Police Chief Sergeant Peter W. Beede, Jr. is proud to announce the following personnel changes within the Moultonborough Police Department.

On Thursday, December 1, 2011, Patrol Officer Colin LeBlanc was promoted to Master Patrol Officer. Master Patrol Officer LeBlanc has served the citizens of Moultonborough since 2006 and is currently a department Field Training Officer (F.T.O.), a member of the Belknap County Traffic Accident Reconstruction Team and a member of the Belknap County Special Operations Group. The rank of Master Patrol Officer is a status position within the department and is achieved when an officer reaches five years of service as a full-time certified police officer with a minimum of two years with the department, a minimum of a police instructor certification and specialized police certification and satisfactory or greater performance evaluations.

Also on Thursday, December 1, 2011, our newest officer, Patrol Officer Jonathan Kleiber was sworn in by Select board Chairman Joel Mudgett. Patrol Officer Kleiber is a native of Milton, MA and moved to Michigan to attend school. Patrol Officer Kleiber received a bachelor's degree in Criminal Justice from Northern Michigan University. Patrol Officer Kleiber resided in Michigan for ten years. Patrol Officer Kleiber is now residing in Moultonborough and is currently in the first phases of the Field Training Program with department Field Training Officers (F.T.O.). Patrol Officer Kleiber will begin the 157th

New Hampshire Full Time Police Academy at New Hampshire Police Standards and Training, in Concord, NH, on Monday, January 9, 2012. With the swearing in of Patrol Officer Kleiber, this brings Moultonborough PD closer to being at full staff of twelve full-time officers with the only vacancy being the position of Chief of Police.
